FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, SEPTEMBER 22, 1894.

To the Twins.

By Mary C. Sawyer-Nicewander.

[The following from the pen of a former Frankfort lady was clipped from the Baltimore American of Sept. 9:]

Of in my dreams I see a vision
Of my nephews, three years old;
With fairest faces, eyes so blue,
And heads a mass of shimmering gold.

In my dreams I hear their laughter—
Muscle's rival in its sweetness;
And the love they give each other
Lends the picture its completeness.

Angels guard them, heaven guide;
Keep them ever pure and fair;
May they reach the goal eternal
Is my earnest, fervent prayer.

Wm. H. Wheeler,

A prominent contractor and builder, of Adams, N. Y., was a great smoker for years. He liked his cigar but did not like the serious throat trouble that began to come upon him in the shape of a bunch or growth. As he expressed it he was afraid he was going to have a Grant throat. At this stage he began using Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, applying it directly to the bunch inside his throat several times each day. A few weeks of this treatment entirely cured the bad throat and Mr. Wheeler states that it worked a most wonderful cure in his case and that he regards Dr. Hale's Household Ointment as the greatest medicine of the 19th century. It cures all inflammation, 25c. and 50c. boxes at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.
